Candidates for South Kitsap schools with fiscal responsibility in mind

It's a rare opportunity we have to elect three solid members to the South Kitsap School Board.

Sehmel, Cross and Edwards are clear-eyed about the issues and the challenges. They are focused on solutions that will most certainly lead to much better results than we have heretofore experienced. All of these candidates also oppose the outlandish $271 million bond issue.

For a very comprehensive discussion of the issues and proposals, I found Edwards web page, www.edwardsforskschools.com to be very helpful and convincing. My sons are all grown, but, even though I have no children enrolled in the district, I have an interest in well run schools and fiscal responsibility.
