Subject: Re: Public giving comments

Hi,

Thanks for the clarification. Here is an excerpt from our policy that speaks to our meetings and public input. This is just a small part of that policy, so I've included the link as well if you'd like to read the entire policy in regard to that subject. I hope this answers your questions.

Otherwise, let me know. Thanks!

Policy 1400

Public Attendance and Comment Any member of the public may attend Board meetings, including individuals who do not live within district boundaries. The Board will not require people to sign in, complete questionnaires, or establish other conditions for attendance. The Board recognizes the value of public comment on educational issues and the importance of involving members of the public in its meetings. In order to permit fair and orderly expression of public comment, the Board will provide a period at the beginning of the meeting during which visitors may address the Board on any topic within the scope of the Board's responsibility. The Board may structure the public comment period, including determining the total time allotted for public comment and equally apportioning the minutes for each speaker. The Board is not obligated to provide additional public comment time to accommodate everyone in attendance who wishes to speak. Any structure the Board imposes will be content neutral.
