Tired of board member's accusations against SK school district

Ever notice how Jeff Daily cannot stop bashing the South Kitsap School District? (“SKSD Director Defends His View...”, Kitsap sun letters, Feb. 26)

His vitriol seems endless — employees, administration, board members, school levies, swimming pool and....on and on ad naseum. District bad; Daily good.

But on closer inspection, the disgruntled former school employee provides no actual proof of financial wrongdoing. Nor does he provide evidence that other board members have neglected their duties. Talk about a "nothing burger." If Mr. Daily has fulfilled his responsibilities as a member of the board, it is not readily apparent given the endless trail of “no” votes and abstentions that exemplify his term of office. True, he does cite a couple of RCWs and a WAC in his letter, which shows he knows something about what the job entails. However, his assertion that he is the only one who fulfills that role makes as much sense as declaring “I Am The Walrus, goo goo g’joob.”

Is this just another effort to trash district officials and sow the seeds of mistrust among voters? My Magic Eight Ball says “decidedly so.” RCW 28A.343.360 states that board members are sworn “...to faithfully discharge the duties of the office to the best of his or her ability.” Since Mr. Daily believes the district is a “train wreck,” perhaps he should get off before the next stop. For those of us who care about education in SK, election 2023 cannot happen soon enough.
